

CSSGJ Public Talk Programme

Autumn 2022

- Monday, 3 October, 6pm Vijay Prashad, author, and director of Tricontinental (USA)
Why the United States Opposed the Historical Integration of Eurasia
Held via Zoom
- Monday, 10 October, 6pm Katia Valenzuela Fuentes, Universidad de Concepción (Chile)
The seeds of the October Rebellion: Politics from below in post-uprising Chile
Held via Zoom
- Monday, 24 October, 6pm Book launch of Labour Conflicts in the Global South with Andreas Bieler, Jörg Nowak, Maurizio Atzeni, Madhumita Dutta, and Bridget Kenny.
Held via Zoom
- Monday, 31 October, 6pm Peter Hallward, Kingston University (UK)
Taking Power: Reading Blanqui after Lenin and Martov
Held via Zoom
- Monday, 7 November, 6pm Tanja Nijmeijer, former FARC-EP combatant/comandante (Colombia)
The FARC-EP: a prolonged struggle for power in Colombia
Held via Zoom
- Monday, 14 November, 6pm Sam King, author and researcher of imperialism (Australia)
Why rich countries stay rich and poor countries poor: the labour theory of contemporary imperialism
Held via Zoom
- Monday, 28 November, 6pm Nick Stevenson University of Nottingham (UK)
Class, Critical Pedagogy, and the Politics of English Heritage
Held via Zoom
- Monday, 5 December, 6pm Ida Danewid, University of Sussex (UK)
Resisting Racial Capitalism: An Anti-Political Theory
Held via Zoom
- Monday, 12 December, 6pm Chris Hesketh, Oxford Brookes University (UK)
Valuing Space in the Modes of Production debate: Lessons from Latin America
Held via Zoom

- All CSSGJ talks will take place at 6pm UK time and will be held via Zoom. To take part in our Zoom talks, it is essential to register a free ticket at our Eventbrite page www.cssgjnotts.eventbrite.co.uk After registering you will be sent a ticket via email and the Zoom details will be provided to you two hours prior to the event. Our website can be found at www.CSSGJ.org, which also facilitates access to video recordings of past events via our YouTube Channel.